

L'Imagier Art Centre
9 Front Street
Gatineau (Quebec) J9H 4W8

PRESS RELEASE
For immediate release

L'IMAGIER HAS A NEW TEAM

Gatineau, November 23, 2020 - L'Imagier Art Centre, non-profit organization whose mission is to celebrate contemporary creation and its artists, announces the arrival of its new team: Leonore-Namkha Beschi, Director and Amélie Rondeau, Program Coordinator. The members of L'Imagier's Board of Directors enthusiastically welcome these two professionals newly arrived in the Gatineau region.

"The members of the Board of Directors and myself share a value that is dear to us; the responsibility our organization has to offer a stimulating programming that meets the highest hopes of residents and tourists. We are confident that L'Imagier will increase its popularity thanks to our new team of talented professionals."

— François Lachapelle, Chair on the Board of Directors.

"I am thrilled to commit to a project such as L'Imagier and its rare potential. I imagine the Centre as a place of all possibilities, a platform for dialogue and authentic artistic encounters with our audiences, in connection with current issues."

— Leonore-Namkha Beschi, Director.

With her unique international museum experience in several cultural institutions in the Middle East and Canada, Leonore-Namkha Beschi has extensive skills in curatorial research, in exhibition-making and in the delivery of exhibition-related engagement programs through hands-on activities and interpretive materials. Ms. Beschi holds a Master's degree in Visual Art and Art History from the University of Strasbourg in France.

Amélie Rondeau holds a Bachelor's and Master's degree in Art History from Concordia University (Montreal). She has experience in research, project management and cultural event planning in several cultural organizations in Canada.

In accordance with government health measures, L'Imagier's exhibition space remains temporarily closed to the public. Our offices are open, and the team is available to answer your questions. We are working to develop new programming and are looking forward to reconnecting with the community in the spring of 2021.

For more information:

Marguerite Ingenito, Administrative Coordinator and Welcoming Agent
info@limagier.qc.ca