L'IMAGIER ANNOUNCES THE 3RD EDITION OF CULTIVÉ ICI/HOMEGROWN MUSIC FESTIVAL

Gatineau, July 10, 2023 – We are thrilled to unveil the highly anticipated 3rd edition of Cultivé Ici/Homegrown Music Festival, set to take place at L'Imagier on September 8-9 & 15-16. This year's festival promises to be an electrifying celebration of the rich musical talent found in the National Capital Region, while also forging stronger connections between Gatineau and Ottawa's local music communities.

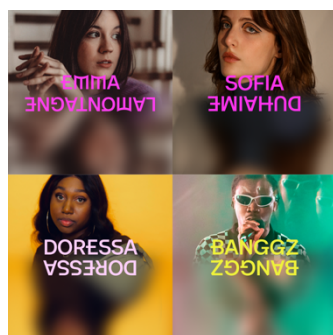

Cultivé Ici/Homegrown has become a signature event, celebrating the soul and rhythm that thrives in our diverse communities. A collaboration between L'Imagier and Quest, the festival is dedicated to showcasing exceptional artists who call Gatineau and Ottawa home, reflecting the depth and variety of musical genres flourishing in this region. Highlights of the 3rd edition include:

Spectacular Lineup: Thanks to our artistic Director Quest, prepare to be captivated by an awe-inspiring lineup of talented performers covering various musical genres, from indie rock and jazz to hip-hop and folk. The stage will come alive with outstanding artists who represent the heart and soul of our communities.

Bridging Communities: Cultivé Ici/Homegrown aims to break barriers and unite our cities through the language of music. By blending talents from Gatineau and Ottawa, we seek to create a vibrant atmosphere that celebrates the uniqueness of each region while celebrating our shared love for music.

Community Celebration: Cultivé Ici/Homegrown is not just a music festival; it is a celebration of the local communities that support and nurture our musicians. Together, we will honor the exceptional talents and recognize the invaluable role music plays in bringing people together. The Parc de L'Imaginaire, will be buzzing with a welcoming ambiance that embraces the spirit of togetherness.
